

The Ethics and Public Policy Center's Big Tech Symposium

Tuesday, June 29, 2021

9:15 a.m. – 1:15 p.m. ET

Zoom

9:15 a.m. – Welcome and introductions from Ryan T. Anderson, EPPC President

9:30 a.m. – Remarks from Senators Bill Hagerty, Josh Hawley, Mike Lee, and Marco Rubio, and Congressman Ken Buck

10:00 a.m. – What to Do About Section 230?

- Matthew Feeney, Cato Institute
- Josh Hammer, Internet Accountability Project (IAP)
- Annie McAdams, Annie McAdams PC
- Russ White, Juniper Networks

11:00 a.m. – Antitrust Law and Big Tech

- Roger Alford, Notre Dame Law School
- Mark Jamison, American Enterprise Institute (AEI)
- John Newman, University of Miami School of Law

12:00 p.m. – Is Common Carrier the Solution to Big Tech's Censorship?

- Adam Candeub, Michigan State University College of Law
- Richard Epstein, New York University School of Law
- Philip Hamburger, Columbia University School of Law
- Eugene Volokh, UCLA School of Law

1:00 p.m. – Concluding remarks from Clare Morell, EPPC Policy Analyst